KATSUYA

L.A. LIVE

The fourth location of Katsuya debuted in June 2009 at downtown Los Angeles' most exciting development, LA Live, where it resides amongst a select roster of restaurants and entertainment venues including the popular Nokia Theater and adjacent Staples Center. Featuring the dynamic pairing of master sushi chef Katsuya Uechi and world-renowned designer Philippe Starck, Katsuya at LA Live also offers private dining and lounge areas as well as an expansive patio overlooking the LA Live promenade.

In addition to dining within the restaurant's stunning interior, Katsuya LA Live features a takeout service as well as off-site catering, so guests can enjoy the restaurant's renown fare - deemed "the future of Japanese cuisine" by Angeleno Magazine - at any location.
